MARITIME FOOD SERVICE

LOWER PRICES, BETTER QUALITY FOOD, AND HAPPIER CREWS

Feeding your crew isn't easy, and doing it on a budget is even harder. NATCO is a supplier of meats and food-service products that has been supporting demanding chefs and institutions for over 97 years. By partnering with ship chandlers, we offer second-to-none responsiveness and help plan your food service solutions when every minute counts. Our large, high-tech facility is USDA inspected and operated by HACCP- certified staff. This allows us to maintain an extremely high standard of food safety while also moving large volumes of truly custom cuts and products.

97 YEARS OF MARKET EXPERIENCE give us the ability to speculate on protein prices. We buy opportunistically and store products in our USDA cold-storage facility. Save with bulk cuts, which we can make custom to your needs. NATCO has been working with vessels and offshore facilities for years, and we know how important it is to have someone who is there when every minute counts. Our food safety standards are extremely rigorous. We offer our products in cryo-vac packaging that keeps them safe and delicious throughout the entire defrosting process, even while you're weeks out into the open sea.

CUSTOMER REVIEWS

WHAT CUSTOMERS SAY ABOUT US

"When people dine at Galatoire's, they know they're getting the finest quality ingredients, prepared with passion and love, by people committed to the highest level of service. When we buy Natco, we know we're getting the same."

~ Phillip Lopez
Executive Chef at Galatoire's

"Natco does not disappoint! Every bite of steak, pork chop, tenderloin, and ground meat has been melt-in-your-mouth tender and unmatched by anything else. Amazing products and service."

TRUSTED BY

WORLD-CLASS CHEFS

For decades we've had our meats at the center of restaurant tables, and we bring that same quality to our maritime customers. The finest restaurants in Louisiana have loved Natco for nearly a century, and now your crews can experience our meats for themselves. With our combination of excellent service, top-quality proteins, and food-service products, we make provisioning your ship a breeze.

A RELIABLE PARTNER FOR MARITIME FOODSERVICE

From our meat cart in 1923 New Orleans to our fleet of modern trucks and national shipping network, NATCO has grown thanks to its commitment to customer success. Our market expertise helps our partners take advantage of new opportunities, while our world-class facility gives us the capacity to adapt to whatever our customers need.
